CITATION

A Meritorious Unit Citation is awarded to Paraguay Bureau for sustained superior performance of duty during the Anglo-Argentine conflict over the Falkland Islands, which began on 2 April 1982.

The crisis in the South Atlantic produced an unprecedented volume of reporting which shattered all previous bureau records for both daily and monthly wordage. The need for overnight staffing over a prolonged period placed a heavy strain on the bureau's personnel who responded in exemplary manner.

The bureau's sustained extra effort during this difficult period enabled FBIS to provide reporting of high value to those officials who required it, reflecting great credit not only on the bureau but on FBIS as a whole.

*This is to certify that the
